Always stay up to date

In times of change, it's important to focus on the things that matter without losing creativity. The whole trick is to find the right balance. Combining tried and trusted products, tools and methods with meaningful improvements and exciting innovations – this is what you can expect here in little Neuland.

From markers to workshop cards through to Pinboards and FlipCharts: in short, the basics you need for your workshop.

Methods and techniques, as well as material and media are changing continuously – Neuland knows this and is hence studying both industry and zeitgeist thoughtfully. We aim to offer you agile, sustainable solutions and sophisticated products for your everyday work. Therefore, we are steadily developing our products further. Our change is constant: You can count on that. Always have your finger on the pulse of the time:

The Neuland Toolmaster® program brings together visual practitioners and coaches who are true experts in their respective fields.

They are as passionate as we are about high-quality tools. With these Toolmasters we share our knowledge and ask the crucial questions that lead us to useful tips and tricks you can't find in a manual. This is how professional visual practitioners turn into real tool experts.

And they love sharing this profound knowledge with their participants, partners and colleagues.

In case you didn't yet know, our water-based inks can also be mixed.

Mischen* possible!

Yes, that's right, you can mix our inks together. We recommend testing the mixed colors on a piece of paper before filling the marker. This allows you to clearly judge the color result as it can appear different in the refill bottle.

* "Mischen" is the German word for "to mix" and it's pronounced "mission"

The Novario® Eco Box is the most ecofriendly version of our Novario® boxes.

The storage boxes of the Eco Line are made of grass paper. The manufacturing process of grass-based pulp is 1.5 times more energy efficient, causes only 77% of emissions, needs 4.5 times less water and has a 5 times lower acidification potential compared to recovered paper.

Moreover, all products of our Eco Line can be easily disposed in the paper bin.

You can find our values and information on environmental protection at
